STATEMENT OF YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

MAY 21 2018

You have the following rights:

- 1) The right to be represented by a lawyer – either at your own expense or with appointed counsel if you qualify as an indigent;
- 2) The right to plead guilty or not guilty, nolo contendere, and various other pleas more fully explained below;
- 3) The right to a speedy trial;
- 4) The right to a trial by jury;
- 5) If you are in jail, the right to be released on bail pending trial;
- 6) If you are charged with a felony, you have the right to a preliminary hearing;
- 7) The right to remain silent, the right to cross-examine witnesses, and the right to call witnesses in your own behalf at your will;
- 8) The right to appeal your case.

CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT
 2ND JUDICIAL DISTRICT
 CARBON COUNTY, WYOMING
 BY _____

THESE RIGHTS ARE MORE FULLY EXPLAINED BELOW, IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS PLEASE ASK THE JUDGE WHEN YOU ARE BROUGHT INDIVIDUALLY BEFORE HER.

THE RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL:

You have the right to have a lawyer represent you. If you choose to have a lawyer, advise the Court and all further proceedings will be postponed for a reasonable time until you have had an opportunity to hire your lawyer. If you are without sufficient money or resources with which to hire a lawyer, the Judge, upon proper inquiry to determine if you qualify, will appoint an attorney to represent you at no cost. However, you may be compelled to contribute toward the cost of your attorney to the extent of your ability to pay.

THE RIGHT TO ENTER A PLEA, RIGHT TO SPEEDY TRIAL AND TRIAL BY JURY:

You have the right to plead guilty, not guilty by reason of mental illness or deficiency, unfit to proceed by reason of mental illness or deficiency, or nolo contendere. You have the right to have your case tried by a jury. This means that six people from this County will decide the facts of the case after listening to both sides, and not the Judge. If you want the Judge to decide the case then you must waive the jury trial in writing with the consent of the State and approval of the Court, and the Judge will decide the matter after listening to both sides. Speedy trial means that the charges against you must be disposed of within a reasonable time.

THE RIGHT TO BAIL:

If your case is not to be tried today you have a right to be released on bail. Bail is an amount of money or some condition imposed by the Court which will insure your presence in Court when you are required to be there.

THE RIGHT TO PRELIMINARY HEARING:

In felony cases you may have a hearing before the Court at which the State must show a Probable Cause that you committed the crime. If a Probable Cause is shown, the Court will bind you over to the District Court for trial, if not, the charges may be dismissed.

THE RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT, CROSS-EXAMINE WITNESS AND CALL WITNESS IN YOUR OWN BEHALF:

You will be asked to plead to the charges, if you plead NOT GUILTY and have a trial, either by the jury or the Judge, you will be allowed to ask the witnesses questions in the form of cross-examination, you will be allowed to have witnesses summoned to Court to testify (at the State's expense if you do not have the money), and you will not have to testify unless you want to. Before entering a plea, you must understand the nature of the charges against you. YOU MUST UNDERSTAND WHAT THEY SAID YOU DID OR DID NOT DO.

THE RIGHT TO APPEAL:

Regardless of your plea, you have a right to appeal your conviction or sentence. If you wish to appeal, you or your lawyer must timely file a NOTICE OF APPEAL and post the required fees and bond with the Court within thirty (30) days of the Order of Final Judgment. If you do not timely file the Notice of Appeal the appeal is waived and your case is over. If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal, you may apply for leave to appeal informa pauperis and to have appointed counsel represent you on appeal.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read the foregoing statement of rights and fully understand them.

Dated this 21st day of MAY, 2018.

BY _____ AB

Judge Stipe,

I am writing in regards to one of the conditions of my probation, which was to obtain an evaluation within 60 days of my sentencing date (May 21, 2018). I am writing to inform you that I am still working on obtaining said evaluation.

I had originally thought that Peak Wellness, in Laramie, would be able to do the evaluation. After going through intake and speaking with one of the therapists, I found out they were unable to do so as the evaluation would need to be pyschosexual.

The director of Peak Wellness referred me to Charles Dennison. However, after leaving a message and receiving a call back I was informed that Dennison was booked until, at the earliest, the month of October.

Peak Wellness is currently looking into services in Cheyenne that might be available. I have also been in contact with the office of Wendy Gervin in Rawlins. At this time, I am expecting a call back from Dr. Gervin tomorrow (Friday) and a call back from Peak Wellness about possible services in Cheyenne on Monday.

I wanted to keep you informed as to my progress on fulfilling this condition of my probation as well as inform you that I am not entirely positive that I will be able to obtain the evaluation by July 21 but that I am trying to obtain one as soon as I possibly can.

Aside from Dr. Dennison in Laramie and Dr. Gervin in Rawlins, if your honor has any other offices that have been used in the past that I could contact, I would greatly appreciate that.

I do apologize for failing to contact you sooner and I thank you for your time.

Signed,

Joshua Noel Wood
